

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
TAMPA DIVISION

In re:

Casey Marie Anthony,

Debtor.

Case Number: 8:13-bk-00922-KRM
Chapter 7

APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES FOR WATKINS LAW FIRM, P.A., AS COUNSEL FOR TRUSTEE

WATKINS LAW FIRM, P.A., ("Applicant") files this Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Watkins Law Firm, P.A. as Counsel for the Trustee, saying:

Date of Employment February 1, 2013 through September 3, 2013.

Attorneys	Hours	Rate	Total
Allan C. Watkins	74.2	$400/hr	$ 29,680.00
TOTAL FEES:			$ 29,680.00
TOTAL EXPENSES:			$ 184.50
TOTAL FEES AND EXPENSES:			$ 29,864.50

Applicant will reduce the request for fees and expenses to $22,000.00.

1. The Debtor filed a Voluntary Petition for Relief under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code on January 25, 2013.

2. Stephen L. Meininger was appointed interim trustee and is now duly qualified and acting as Trustee.

3. On February 1, 2013 Watkins Law Firm, P.A. filed an application to be employed as counsel for the Trustee and the Court entered an Order Granting the Application on February 4, 2013.

4. Applicant is seeking fees in the amount of $29,680.00 and expenses of $184.50 for the period beginning February 1, 2013 and ending September 3, 2013.

5. The valuation of Applicant's services in this matter should be based upon the following considerations enunciated in the matter of First Colonial Corp. of America, 544 F.2d 1291 (5th Cir. 1977):

a. Time and Labor Required: The Applicant has spent 74.2 hours rendering professional services to or on behalf of the Trustee in this case. Applicant has maintained detailed, daily records of time and expenses devoted in rendering these services. A copy is attached as Exhibit "A." During all times relevant to this case the billing rate per hour for, Allan C. Watkins, was $400.00 per hour.

b. Novelty and Difficulty of Questions: This case was novel in that the Debtor had been acquitted of the charges of killing her child in an extremely high profile trial. There were numerous emails and telephone calls from parties claiming to be interested in the case. There was also the attendant publicity and numerous phone calls from members of the media. In terms of the difficulty of questions, the issue of exactly what the Bankruptcy Estate may have as a property right in the commercialization of the Debtor's story was paramount. This was the main issue in the case.

c. Skill Requisite to Perform the Legal Services Properly: Applicant's practice is limited to the area of bankruptcy and related matters, and it submits that it has performed the services for the Trustee to the best of its ability. The President of the Applicant and lead attorney, Allan C. Watkins, is AV rated by Martindale Hubbell and is board certified in both consumer and business bankruptcy by the American Board of Certification. Mr. Watkins has practiced extensively in the bankruptcy area for more than thirty eight (38) years and is admitted to practice in both Florida and Colorado.

d. Preclusion of Other Employment by Attorneys Involved: During all times relevant to this case, there was minimal preclusion of other employment.

e. Customary Fee: The fee requested by Applicant is the fee normally charged by Applicant. Further, Applicant submits that its normal billing rates are in keeping with the billing rates for similarly situated attorneys in the Middle District of Florida.

f. Whether Fee is Fixed or Contingent: The fee in representing the Trustees in Chapter 7 cases is contingent upon there being a recovery and is also subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court after review and input and criticism from the creditors, other parties in interest, and the United States Trustee. In each case the Trustee and counsel for the Trustee must spend time and effort investigating the availability of assets. If there are no assets, or if the assets are limited, the fees awarded may not cover the time and effort expended. If there is a good recovery, the fees are capped by limited hourly rates.

g. Limitations Imposed by Client or other Circumstances: No unusual limitations were imposed by the Client.

h. Amount Involved and Results Obtained. Applicant has represented the Trustee in this matter since February 1, 2013. A summary of the significant matters handled by the Applicant during the representation of the Trustee is set forth herein.

1. Applicant was contacted by the Trustee concerning representation in the case. Applicant drafted an application to be employed, the affidavit of disinterestedness and the order authorizing employment.

2. Applicant reviewed the Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs filed by the Debtor and discussed the case with the Trustee, in particular looking at the possibility of a sale of the media rights to the Debtor's story.

3. Applicant researched §541 of the Bankruptcy Code concerning property of the Estate, in particular the commercialization of the rights to the Debtor's story.

4. During the course of this case applicant had several telephone conferences with Cynthia Burnett, Assistant U.S. Trustee, concerning the administration of the case, security at the 341 Meeting and status as the case moved forward.

5. Applicant reviewed the Motion to Transfer Venue filed by a creditor and discussed this at length with the Trustee. Applicant did research on the issue of transfer of venue, and attended the hearing on the motion.

6. During the course of the case applicant had numerous telephone conferences and conferences with David L. Schrader, Debra Ferwerda and Charles M Greene, counsel for the Debtor concerning administration of the Estate.

7. In preparation for the §341 Creditors Meeting, applicant discussed procedure with the Trustee. In anticipation that the Debtor might assert Fifth Amendment privileges that would need to be addressed by the Court on an expedited basis, applicant contacted Mr. Kilcorn, Deputy Clerk of the Court, concerning the availability of a Judge to handle any Fifth Amendment issues on an expedited basis.

8. Applicant attended the §341 Meeting with the Trustee.

9. During the course of the case applicant received several communications from parties interested acquiring the commercialization of the Debtor's story. In addition, applicant contacted a number of publishing houses and others who had handled such commercialization rights. Applicant had received an offer to buy the rights for $10,000. Applicant prepared and filed a motion to sell the rights and to set auction terms. After the sale motion was filed, Debtors counsel filed a lengthy objection. During the time period applicant received one other bid for $12,000. Despite a nationwide publicity, the sale did elicit a great response. In view of the Debtor's objection, applicant withdrew the sale motion.

10. Applicant then negotiated a compromise with the Debtor concerning the legal issue of the Estate's interest in the Debtor's right to commercialization of her story. Applicant filed a motion to approve the compromise, whereby the Debtor would pay the Estate the sum of $25,000. The Motion was approved and the Estate received the $25,000.

11. Some of the Creditors raised the issue of the contents of the Debtor's computer alleging that there might be a draft of her story on the computer. Applicant filed a motion to require the Debtor to turn-over the computer. As part of that, Applicant held a "private" Rule 2004 Examination at which time Applicant reviewed the Debtor's computer, inquired as to the contents of the computer and certain other matters relevant to the case and the Debtor's story. As a result of this, it appeared to Applicant that there was no draft of a story on the computer. Debtor testified that she had never written a draft nor did she intend to at the time of the 2004 Examination. Based upon those facts, Applicant withdrew the motion for turn-over of the computer. During the course of the case Applicant received a number of telephone calls and emails from various parties. The thrust of most of these was that the Debtor was concealing assets. Applicant attempted to trace down the various allegations of non-disclosed assets. Applicant was unable to locate undisclosed assets.

12. Applicant prepared this fee application.

i. Undesirability of the Case: This case is no more or less desirable than any other Chapter 7 Trustee case.

j. Nature and Length of Professional Relationship with Client: Applicant has represented Stephen L. Meininger for several years in a number of other Trustee cases.

k. Awards in Similar Cases: The amount sought by Applicant is well within the range of awards in similar cases.

WHEREFORE, Applicant respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an order authorizing the Chapter 7 Trustee to pay the reasonable fees in the amount of $29,860.00 and expenses in the amount of $184.50 for a total of $29,864.50.

Applicant has consented to a reduction of fee and costs to $22,000.00.

The undersigned, an Officer of Applicant, declares under a penalty of perjury the statements made herein are true and correct based upon the personal knowledge of the facts.

Respectfully Submitted,
